

Looking for a new doctor?

Have you recently moved to a new city?

Is your doctor retiring?

Need a bilingual doctor?

PrimeCare, part of OptumCare, is the largest independently-contracted doctor network in the Inland Empire.

Our outstanding doctors provide exceptional care built around you and are part of a broad and easy-to-access care network.

Exceptional Care Built Around You

Our proven care network is led by a PrimeCare primary care doctor who works with a dedicated team to coordinate all aspects of your care which may include specialists as well as hospital staff.

A Broad and Easy-to-Access Care Network

PrimeCare has more than 350 primary care doctors to choose from and access to more than 1,000 local specialists in the Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

PrimeCare's contracted doctor network and its staff is committed to the health, needs, and peace of mind of patients in the Inland Empire for more than 20 years.

Flexible clinic hours and urgent care centers are in place to accommodate the work schedules of patients.

Recognized Quality Care

PrimeCare is an "Elite Medical Group" as designated by the California Association of Physician Groups (CAPG) Standards of Excellence Survey.<sup>1</sup>

PrimeCare was also chosen as the "Best Medical Group" by the readers of the Inland Valley Daily Bulletin in 2015.

Selecting a Primary Care Doctor

Selecting a PrimeCare primary care doctor is easy. Look in your health plan directory or on their website for PrimeCare. The directory lists all doctors belonging to the Independent Physician Association (IPA) and gives their office locations and health plan code numbers. You will need these numbers to complete your health plan enrollment form.

For information about PrimeCare or help selecting one of our affiliated doctors, call 1-888-313-7929. Our website also offers information including a ZIP code search for a doctor near you. ProviderSearch.primecare.com
